

50X1-HUM

SOVIET FILM SHOWN IN WARSAW

(From Italian and Polish newspapers as indicated)

"Quel
~~3~~ 1951

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

SOVIET ANTIRELIGIOUS FILM SHOWN IN WARSAW -- Rome, Bollettino Danubiano, 29 Jan 51

According to information received in Budapest, Warsaw authorities have ordered all movie-houses to show the Soviet film called <sup>Result of the Dismissal</sup> "Conspiracy of the Doomed".

The film portrays the machinations of "reactionary" circles against Communist regimes and singles out Cardinal Mindszenty as the main agitator and leading imperialist agent.

SHOW SOVIET FILM "CONSPIRACY OF THE DOOMED" -- Warsaw, Trybuna Ludu, 1 Feb 51

The first announcement of the showing of "Spisek Bankrutow" (Conspiracy of the Doomed) appeared in Warsaw, 1 February 1951. In a column headed "Cinema" in Trybuna Ludu, the showing was announced in two theaters, Palladium and Stolica. Both theaters exhibited the film three times daily. It was announced as a Soviet production. Children under 12 were not admitted.

Warsaw, Zolnierz Wolnosci, 9 Feb 51

"Spisek Bankrutow" is still being shown at the Palladium and Ochota.

No fanfare accompanied the showing of this movie.
No reviews appeared and no showings were announced in other cities around this time.

CONFIDENTIAL